Teaching Assistants

Full-time

Fixed Term Contract – 1 Year (with the possibility of becoming permanent)

Scale 3, pro-rata, term time only

Ben Jonson Primary School is a vibrant, three form entry school, situated in the richly diverse community of the Ocean Estate. We are seeking to appoint enthusiastic and well-motivated Teaching Assistants. Our pupils are keen to learn and are making excellent progress within the nurturing learning environment that we provide.

We offer:

- Motivated pupils with good standards of behaviour;
- Excellent resourced school in a modern building;
- Effective and embedded plans and procedures;
- Supportive staffing structure and a knowledgeable Governing Body;
- Ongoing development and training opportunities.

We welcome applicants who have:

- Experience of working with children:
 - individual children and target groups with a wide range of needs, introducing tasks and monitoring access to learning;
 - with autism and Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)
- Evidence of building strong relationships with children, staff and parents;
- High expectations, a passion for helping every child succeed whilst promoting independence and self-motivation;
- Excellent communication skills in written and verbal English;
- Strong academic background, including GCSE Maths and English (C and above or equivalent);
- A commitment to our ethos and values and the drive to go that extra mile.
